Liegi mi è cara

Founder and manager of the Blu Cammello workshop (Livorno, Italy), Riccardo Bargellini inaugurates the "Workshop Memoires" section of the Saisons du Trinkhall. He recounts the story of the Livorno workshop, the context of its beginnings, its evolution and the limitations and difficulties of this kind of organisation. Bargellini's testament also reveals the intense artistic relationships with the users of the workshop, where art freely becomes a common experience.
